

Deduct Business Costs on Office Equipment with Kraft Business System Copiers and Printers

With the U.S. government 2023 update of the Section 179 deduction, you can now deduct 100% purchase costs on office equipment, encouraging your business to grow in productivity and efficiency! Qualification for Section 179 deductions include:

- Equipment and software must be used 50% or more for business purposes
- Total amount of equipment purchased allowed: $2,890,000
- All qualified equipment and software must be in service between Jan 1st – Dec 31st, 2023.
- Both new and used office equipment are deductible so long as devices are new to the business.

At Kraft, we offer a wide variety of new and used office equipment to help organizations optimize their production services!

Improve your office with our solutions, offering not only Managed Print Services but also a diverse inventory of printers and copiers designed around your organization's unique needs.

Gain control of your printing and document needs in order to help your organization cut costs and save money, boost productivity and efficiency, and streamline workflows.
